CONDITIONS OF CONTRACT

The following conditions are hereby made and agreed to between the Shipper and US EXPRESS INTERNATIONAL, INC., hereinafter referred to as US EXPRESS. No agent or employee of US EXPRESS may alter these terms.

1. US EXPRESS, subject to its scope of service and in consideration of payment in accordance with the rates set forth, agrees to transport the shipment to destination and in accordance with the instructions on this consignment bill. US EXPRESS reserves the right to use any route(s) and procedure(s) it deems necessary to complete the shipment.
2. US EXPRESS reserves the right to refuse any shipment at its discretion and further reserves the right to reject a shipment at any time after acceptance. Cash, negotiable securities, hazardous materials, goods not acceptable for air transportation will not be accepted under any circumstances.
3. The shipper declares that the contents of the shipment do not include any of the items mentioned in paragraph 2, nor does it contain any items legally prohibited by any country or state, from, to or through which the items may be carried. US EXPRESS and/or any official government representative may open and inspect the shipment.
4. It is agreed that the liability of US EXPRESS will be limited, in any event, to the following:
   (a) In the event of loss or damage to documents or any type of papers, either typed, printed, or handwritten, either for personal or business use, including plans and photos, US EXPRESS will pay the fair cost of duplicating the items up to a maximum of $100.00 per shipment and will provide free transportation of the duplicated items to the same destination.
   (b) US EXPRESS will not be liable, in any event, for loss, damage, misdelivery or delay not caused by US EXPRESS's own negligence.
   (c) When goods or merchandise, including samples, are tendered for carriage, the limit of US EXPRESS's liability will not exceed $100.00 per shipment, unless a higher value is declared and charges for such higher value are paid. In any event, US EXPRESS will not assume a liability higher than $100.00 and the liability will be limited to the declared value of the shipment as designated by the customer on this consignment bill, or the amount of any loss or damage actually sustained, which is lower. The Shipper must also complete and submit a sworn commercial invoice with a shipment of this type.
   (d) No liability is assumed by US EXPRESS for delay in delivery or for consequential damages of any kind, such as loss of income, loss of interest or loss of business opportunity.
5. The Shipper must give notice of any claim to US EXPRESS in writing, stating the date and nature of the claim, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of issuance of the consignment bill.
6. The Shipper agrees, that if found necessary by US EXPRESS, any required customs clearance may be designated by US EXPRESS to a licensed customs broker.
7. Notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary, the Shipper is primarily responsible for any and all additional charges incidental to normal delivery; including but not confined to storage, demurrage, or recoverable disposal by Shipper's instructions.
