WEB CONFERENCE ACTIVITY 3

1 I have won the lotto twice! (¡Yo he ganado la lotería dos veces!)

Past perfect is a grammar tense which is used to talk about actions that occurred before another action in the past. There are different ways of using the past perfect apart from the one just mentioned. One of them is the use of past perfect in the "indirect speech"; besides, it is an important part of the third conditional because it is the tense used as the condition.
