hello everybody, today I am going to talk about William Shakespeare. Shakespeare was an English playwright, poet, and performer. He was born in Stratford-upon-Avon on April 26, 1564. His mother was the offspring of a landowner, and his father was an accomplished local businessman. Shakespeare is widely regarded as the greatest English-language author and the greatest playwright in history. He is frequently referred to as England's national poet and is known by the moniker Bard of Avon. He also wrote several other verses, the authorship of some of which is unknown, including about 38 plays, 154 sonnets, two lengthy narrative poems, and a few other verses. More often than any other playwright, he has plays that have been performed in every major living language. Between 1589 and 1613, Shakespeare wrote the majority of his well-known plays. His early plays, which were primarily comedies and histories, are still regarded as some of the best in their respective genres. Up until around 1608, he primarily produced tragedies, some of the best in the English language being Macbeth, King Lear, and Hamlet. He collaborated with other playwrights and wrote tragicomedies, also referred to as romances, during his final period. Shakespeare's plays continue to be widely acclaimed today and are frequently studied, performed, and reinterpreted in various cultural and political contexts around the globe. He retired to Stratford in the late 16th century at the age of 49 and died there three years later. Shakespeare's personal life is not well documented. A 52-year-old man, he passed away on April 23, 1616. He signed his will, in which he states that he is in "perfect health," within a month of his passing. Shakespeare bequeathed his eldest daughter Susanna the majority of his sizable estate in his will.

Hello Yulisa, this is a nice participation and this shows the King of Pop, howver, you need to use simple past tense to talk about events and you are describing the figure in other verb tenses in the second and third paragraph. You have to follow the instructions carefully, next time.
