Idioms of food

hungry as a bear

- Idiom:
- Meaning:
- Example:

cucumber as cool a

- Idiom:
- Meaning:
- Example:

beans of full

- Idiom:
- Meaning:
- Example:

couch a potato

- Idiom:
- Meaning:
- Example:

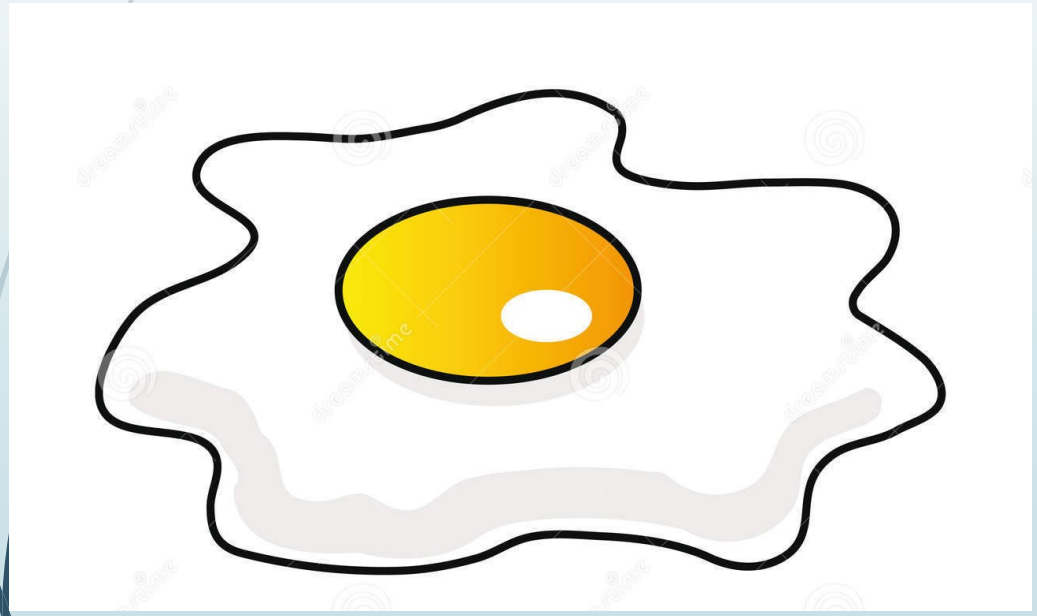

Nut hard crack a to

- Idiom:
- Meaning:
- Example:

What does this sentence means?

- The children egged on each other to complete the final team work.

a. The children encouraged each other to finish the work.
b. The children threw the eggs to the naughty boys.
c. The children thought it was a bad idea to do the work.

What does this sentence means?

- “If you want to get the toy car, you’d have to butter your mom up,” suggested Deva.

a. Mom really likes butter and bread.
b. You should be nice to mom if you want anything from her.
c. You should give mom some butter at the breakfast before you go to buy toy.

What does this sentence means?

- “Harry Potter is really my cup of tea! I enjoyed to read it so much!”, says Dad.

a. Dad really likes to have a cup of tea while reading Harry Potter.
b. Dad likes reading Harry Potter.
c. Dad doesn’t like to read Haarry Potter.

What does this sentence means?

- “In a nutshell, Haylin and Jayden must complete the homework by tonight,” said mom.

a. To summarise, Haylin and Jayden are warned to finish their work.
b. Haylin and Jayden will eat nuts while doing homework.
c. Jayden cracks the shell of nuts for Haylin while doing homework..