STATEMENT OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Board of Trustees of the University of Chicago has the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the report of the Committee on the Administration of the University, which was appointed by the Board in 1947. The report of the Committee is a valuable contribution to the study of the problems of the University and its administration. The Board is deeply indebted to the members of the Committee for their thoughtful and thorough study of the subject.

The Board is particularly impressed by the Committee's findings regarding the need for a more unified and efficient administrative structure. The Board believes that the recommendations of the Committee are sound and should be adopted as a basis for the reorganization of the University's administrative offices.

The Board has decided to accept the recommendations of the Committee and to implement the proposed changes as soon as possible. It is the hope of the Board that these changes will result in a more effective and economical administration of the University.

The Board also wishes to express its appreciation to the members of the Committee for their cooperation and assistance throughout the course of their study. The Board is confident that the implementation of the Committee's recommendations will result in a more unified and efficient administrative structure, which will be better able to meet the needs of the University in the future.

The Board is sure that the members of the University community will support the Board's decision to implement the recommendations of the Committee. The Board is confident that the University will continue to prosper and to make significant contributions to the world of learning.
