To Whom It May Concern:

NV5 Geospatial Solutions, Inc. ("NV5 Geospatial"), located in Broomfield, Colorado USA, is the exclusive manufacturer, developer, direct sales channel and distributor for IDL®, ENVI®, and Jagwire™ software in the United States. NV5 Geospatial is also the exclusive direct sales channel and distributor for SARscape in the United States and Canada. NV5 Geospatial is the sole source supplier for these software products in the United States and Canada, and utilizes no other authorized third-party distributors, resellers, or agents. IDL® and ENVI® are registered trademarks of NV5 Geospatial.

We certify that Procalculo Prosis SAS ("Procalculo Prosis"), an independent company, is our Exclusive Authorized Distributor within the territory of Colombia and Panama. Procalculo Prosis is authorized to demonstrate, promote, market, distribute, and support the ENVI, IDL, and SARscape family of software and related materials.

Procalculo Prosis may establish relationships with subdistributors for the promotion, licensing, and distribution of NV5 Geospatial software products on behalf of NV5 Geospatial within their territory.

This declaration expires on December 31st 2025, unless the Distributor Agreement is terminated by the terms and conditions set forth within such agreement.

Please direct any questions about the relationship between NV5 Geospatial and our authorized distributor, Procalculo Prosis, to me at the email address below.

Sincerely,

Cherie Tyrrell
