MODAL VERBS

I like to sit in my backyard and think about what I should be when I grow up.
Should I be a doctor or should I be a nurse?
Perhaps, I should be a doctor because there are a lot of sick people in the world I could help.
Maybe, I should become a nurse and work in schools to help children who don't feel well, I would be able to help them too.
My brother told me I should become an artist because I can draw really well. He said artists have a relaxing life and that I could become famous.
My sister said I should become a writer because I really have a good imagination and that it wouldn't be too hard for me to write good stories.
I think the best advice came from my mother. She said I should study to be a teacher because I am patient and like to be with people. I think my mother is right and that is what I should do.
