Subject: Special £99 Ticket Offer for Music Cities Awards Applicants

To: <adriana.gonzalez@scrd.gov.co>

Dear Adriana Gonzalez Hassig,

I hope this email finds you well.

I'm reaching out because you submitted an application for the Music Cities awards.

As a thank you, we would like to offer you exclusive early access to the Music Cities Convention at a special rate of £99. This is our way of recognising your involvement and ensuring that the people who care most about building stronger music cities are in the room.

Our one request is that you make a charitable contribution of £10 to our chosen charity partners, the Music Venue Trust and Nordoff & Robbins. 100% of your £10 donation will go to the charity.

The Music Cities Convention takes place in Hull, UK, from 9–11 June 2026. Since 2015, it has been the global forum where solutions are found, policies are debated, and networks are built. We are proud to be back in the UK for the first time since 2016, as we continue exploring both where we are and where we need to get to in building stronger music cities worldwide.

Access and discount code: MCCH_MCA

Please book your reduced price ticket here. Tickets are limited, and once this two-week window closes, your discount will no longer be valid, but you can still book at full price.

We kindly request that you share details of the convention with your networks and on social media. This would help us greatly to reach more music leaders. Please find event marketing assets here.

We look forward to welcoming you to Hull this June for inspiring discussions, live showcases, and meaningful connections across the global music cities network.

Best regards,
Roz Fagan
