Dear Trainees,
I hope you are doing well.
I would like to inform you that all the support materials for your training process will be available in the corresponding link for each of the competencies you are currently studying with me.
In each competency section, you will find the necessary resources to support your learning, including presentations, complementary readings, practice activities, guides, and additional reference materials. These resources are designed to strengthen your understanding and help you successfully achieve the expected learning outcomes.

Please make sure to review the materials regularly and use them to prepare for activities, workshops, and evaluations. Staying organized and checking the links frequently will help you stay on track with your training process.
If you have any questions or experience any difficulty accessing the materials, please let me know.
Best regards,
Carlos Andrey Rubiano Muñ
