Preguntas SABER 11 de inglés

1. A. "At" is the correct preposition to use for a specific time. "On" is used for days and dates, and "in" is used for parts of the day, months, years, and centuries.
2. A. "Consists" is the correct verb form because it matches the singular subject "breakfast." "Consist" is incorrect because it does not match the singular subject without a plural helper.
3. A. "Walk" is correct as it matches the present simple tense used in routines. "Walked" is past tense and "walks" would be used for he/she/it.
4. A. "Arrive" is used for present routines. "Arrived" is past tense, and "arrives" is not suitable when using a plural subject like "we."
5. A. "Subjects" is plural which fits with "many," while "subject" is singular and "subjects" is a possessive form, both incorrect here.
6. A. "Do" matches the plural subject "we" and the present tense routine. "Does" is for singular subjects, and "did" is past tense.
7. A. "Before" is the correct preposition when talking about a sequence of events. "After" implies it happens following something, and "under" refers to position.

7.	A.go	B.went	C.gone
8.	A.quiet	B.strategic	C.noisy
9.	A.always	B.never	C.sometimes
10.	A.and	B.but	C.or
11.	A.have	B.take	C.make
12.	A.tomatoes	B.potato	C.lettuce

Respuestas correctas:

1. A. "Go" is present tense, suitable for habitual actions. "Went" is past tense, and "gone" is a past participle, neither fit the routine described.
2. B. "Strategic" fits the context of describing games like chess, focusing on planning and tactics, while "quiet" and "noisy" describe sound levels and not the nature of games.
3. C. "Sometimes" indicates an occasional activity, fitting the narrative that sometimes the father joins. "Always" and "never" suggest absolute frequency, not implied here.
4. A. "And" is used to connect two related activities - meeting new friends and playing. "But" contrasts and "or" provides alternatives, neither intended here.
5. A. "Have" in the context of eating is appropriate. "Take" would imply transporting, and "make" refers to preparing food, not consuming.
6. C. "Lettuce" is commonly paired with cheese in sandwiches. "Tomatoes" and "potato" could fit but "potato" isn't typically in a cheese sandwich without specific context.

16.	A.cinema	B.library	C.museum
17.	A.often	B.rarely	C.lately
18.	A.impressed	B.bored	C.relieved

Respuestas correctas:

1. A. "Is" indicates present tense, suitable for describing Alex now. "Was" implies past detail, not sustained, and "are" is for plural subjects.
2. A. "Since" connects the starting point to the present, which fits ongoing friendships. "Until" implies end, unsuitable here, and "while" doesn't connect ongoing situations.
3. A. "Together" indicates companionship in doing homework. "Separate" and "apart" mean individually, not described here.

Preguntas SABER 11 de inglés

4. A. "Cinema" matches with watching movies. "Library" and "museum" are for different activities, not fitting the context of movie-watching.
5. A. "Often" shows frequency, fitting the habitual present context. "Rarely" indicates infrequency contrary to narrative, and "lately" suggests recent changes only.
6. A. "Impressed" matches the emotional response to an impressive act, playing original music. "Bored" and "relieved" are different sentiments, not aligning here.

Respuestas correctas:

Preguntas SABER 11 de inglés

1. A. "Were" is the plural past form of "to be," fitting the narrative and plural "animals." "Was" and "is" don't match this setting.
2. A. "Big" describes elephants accurately. "Tiny" and "purple" don't match common features associated with elephants.
3. A. "Speak" describes the parrot's ability to mimic words. "Run" and "eat" don't fit this feature of parrots.
4. A. "Majestic" fits the lions' appearance with manes. "Funny" and "small" are out-of-sync with the lions' typical image.
5. A. "Bought" suits the context as it's about purchasing. "Swim" and "jump" describe actions not matching the situation.
6. A. "Souvenir" refers to keepsakes from trips. "Fruit" and "adventure" don't apply to a gift item bought as a memento.
