2.	A.tasty	B.boring	C.scary
3.	A.while	B.until	C.because
4.	A.on	B.under	C.over
5.	A.She	B.It	C.He

Respuestas correctas:

1. A. "Family" is the correct word because it refers to the group of people you are related to. "Friends" and "city" do not fit the context as they do not describe people you live with.

2. B. The word "has" is used with singular nouns like "Our house". "Have" is used with plural nouns or pronouns like 'they', and "had" is past tense which does not match the present description.

3. A. "Tasty" is correct as it describes food in a positive way. "Boring" and "Scary" do not describe food appropriately.

4. A. "While" indicates two actions happening at the same time, which fits here. "Until" and "because" do not correctly link simultaneous actions.

5. A. The preposition "on" is correct for playing on the grass. "Under" and "over" do not make sense as locations for playing in this context.

6. B. "It" is correct for referring to animals like cats in a general sense. "She" or "He" would be used if the gender of Whiskers was specified.

9	A.my	B.our	C.his	D.the
10	A.animals	B.people	C.music	D.food

Respuestas correctas:

0 The correct answer is 'big' because the context of the text describes a house that has ample space for family activities, a garden, and is warm and cozy, aligning with the adjective 'big'.

1 'Large' is the correct answer because the text mentions the house as being big and having a living room with ample space.

2 'There' is the correct answer as it directly refers to the small garden previously mentioned where Anna plays with her dog.

3 The word 'cozy' is used because the context indicates a warm and inviting space, which is consistent with this adjective.

4 'Every' is the suitable choice as it aligns with the routine aspect of eating meals together daily.

5 The verb 'works' is used here because it fits the context of a professional activity in a school setting.

6 'Feel' is appropriate because it matches the profession of a doctor who contributes to improving people's physical state.

7 'With' is the correct preposition as it indicates the proximity or involvement with the toys during play.

8 The word 'bikes' fits because it matches the recreational activity of riding.

9 The pronoun 'my' correctly refers to Anna's possessive context when talking about reading books in her own bed.

10 Animals is the correct answer because it aligns with Anna's interest and aspiration to become a vet.
