The page displays a forum post titled "ANUNCIOS" with the subject "Primera sesión sincronica Transversal Ambiental." The post is by KATHERINE BATISTA CAMPO, dated June 22, 2026, at 11:20. The content of the post includes a welcome message and two learning activities: 1. Activity GA11-220601501-AA3: Develop a mental map of environmental plans and actions. 2. Activity GA11-220601501-AA4: Propose actions to promote sustainable culture. The post also includes a Teams link for the session: <https://teams.live.com/join/9330153603880?p=OnaxsC5Bx73Qxm2m7g>.

The screenshot shows a PDF document titled "Guia_aprendizaje_11.pdf" from the SENA repository. The document is on page 10 of 16. It details the requirements for a mental map activity. The activity is titled "Evidencia GA11-220601501-AA3-EV01. Mapa mental respecto a los planes y acciones establecidos en medio ambiente y SST." The document explains that the map should be based on the study of cases and the development of action alternatives. It lists the following aspects to consider: 1. The title should reflect the central idea of the work regarding "plans and actions" and be accompanied by an impactful image. 2. The sub-points should be plans and actions in the environment and SST. 3. The map should be simplified and clear. The document also includes instructions for the delivery of the product: 1. Product to deliver: a mental map with plans and actions in SST. 2. Format: if the map is manual, it should be digitized and saved as a PDF. 3. Extension: one page. 4. The map should be submitted to the corresponding activity space. The document also includes a section for the activity GA11-220601501-AA4, which involves proposing actions to promote sustainable culture.
