ng Conclusion

lo is a big city in Brazil. People speak Portug there are many different cultures. The wea and there are lot of parties and fun events a l. It is a lively and colorful place is busy, noisy city with a lot of traffic and m weather changes a lot: sometimes it is hot old, and it rains often. It is a lively city fferent way. Both cities are very special a fe.

Close-Up B1+ - Comparative, superlative and equatives

Comparative, superlative and equative - adjectives

A Complete the sentences with the correct form of the adjectives.

1. She's as young as her husband. They're both 27. (young)
2. This is the strongest case in the shop. (strong)
3. This TV show is much funnier than the one we saw yesterday. (funny)
4. You're the friendliest person in the classroom. (friendly)
5. The traffic is noisier than it was last year. (noisy)
6. It doesn't matter which show we watch. The Price is Right is as boring as as Master Chef for me. (boring)
7. My house is nearer than Helen's. (near)
8. She's the most intelligent student in the group. (intelligent)
9. Ms. Anderson is a better teacher than Mr. Robert. (good)

a) Comparative and superlative exercises

1) bigger
2) Prettier
3) Longer
4) Tallest
5) cleverest
6) Bigger
7) stronger

c) Complete the Sentences. Use the Comparative or the superlative form of the adjectives

1) example

2) Gorillas are bigger than cats, but giraffes are the tallest animals in the world

3) Tigers are heavier than wolves, but elephants are the heaviest animals in the world

4) Science is more difficult than history, but Maths is the most difficult school subject

5) Peter is better than tom at tennis, but Sam is the best tennis player in our class

6) A tiger is louder than a snow leopard, but a lion is the loudest of big cats

7) Ann is more beautiful than kelly but Mary is the most beautiful girl the class

8) Nick is worse than Jim at rugby, but Simon is the worst rugby player of all